Probers Search For Estes List

Investigators Hunt Cash Gift Roster Filled With Big Names

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House investigators today hunted for Billie Sol Estes' cash gift list, which was reported to be so full of high-ranking officials that Estes couldn't keep track of who was on it.

Another Kennedy On Way

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI)—Ted Kennedy is riding a steamroller towards Washington.

The President's 30-year-old brother scored a smashing political victory early today when he won the endorsement of the Democratic state committee as candidate for United States senator.

President Kennedy telephoned his brother to congratulate him. But young Ted missed the call. He was en route to Municipal Auditorium to make his acceptance speech.

Within an hour, however, Ted returned the call. He said the President "expressed good wishes and said some other words as well." He did not elaborate.

Edward McCormack Jr., his opponent and nephew of House Speaker John McCormack, saw the handwriting on the tally sheets.

McCormack Concedes Defeat
At 12:26 a.m. when the roll call of the 40 delegations was just past the halfway mark, he strode to the convention platform and conceded defeat.

That action automatically gave Kennedy the convention's endorsement.

But McCormack said he would challenge Kennedy again in the fall Democratic primary.

That is his right under Massachusetts law because actually this convention was only a popularity contest.

But the way the Kennedy votes were rolling in Friday night and early today few political experts gave McCormack much of a chance in the next round.

Massachusetts normally is a Democratic state and Kennedy is given much better than an even chance to defeat the Republican senatorial nominee in the November election.

Friday Kennedy made a brief prediction: "We are confident of victory. It won't be close."

Shortly after the roll call of the delegations started Friday night it was apparent that the young man knew what he was talking about. He seized the lead after the second delegation cast its vote and was never headed.

He had 691 votes to his opponents' 369 when McCormack tossed in the towel.

Promise Purchase
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Yugoslavia has informed acting U. N. Secretary General Thant it intends to buy $200,000 worth of U. N. bonds, it was announced here.

This involved the selection of three cabinet members from among Boun Oum's followers. Souvanna said the differences were so small that they could have been settled during Friday's talks "but we took too much time over lunch."

It will probably take several more months for the reports on the subcommittee's 4½ months of hearings to be written. All or most of the other seven members will probably sign a majority report, with Thurmond writing his own.

At the concluding hearing, Thurmond tried to show that the Pentagon had not responded vigorously to Communist "revolutionary anti-militarism."

Would Embrace Capitalist and Red Countries

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union and its Eastern bloc partners said today they favored the convening of an international conference which would set up a world-wide trade body that would embrace both Communist and capitalist nations.

The call came in the final communique issued after the two-day meeting of the Council of Mutual Economic Assistance Comecon in the Kremlin.

The Comecon countries are in favor of convening an international conference on problems of trade, which would discuss the question of setting up an international trade agency "to embrace all regions and countries of the world without any discrimination," the communique said.

The communique also said the sessions took "specific organizational measures" to boost the role, authority and responsibility of Comecon. But there was no indication what steps were taken.

The full text was released today by the official Soviet news agency Tass. The document painted a glowing picture of the state of the Eastern bloc's economy and expressed "the desire of the Comecon countries" to increase foreign trade with the West.

The Comecon sessions ended on Thursday after two days of closed door meetings in the Kremlin. The sessions brought together the top Communist party leaders and economic experts from the Soviet Union, East Germany, Poland, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia.

But Albania, a member of the Comecon, was conspicuously missing. And Communist China, which has supported Albania in its ideological dispute with the Kremlin, did not send a representative.

The secret sessions were believed to have dealt with both economic and political problems facing the Communist bloc. One of the points believed to have been given careful consideration of the six-nation European Common Market.

Mother of Deserted Baby Sought

The search for a young mother who left a three-day-old infant in Riverside County Hospital Friday led to a fictitious Palm Springs address late yesterday.

Sought was Barbara Sherree Johnson, who gave hospital authorities a 516 N. El Segundo Road address in Palm Springs. Police could locate neither the new mother nor the address given.

"There apparently is no such address," Lt. Richard Harries, Palm Springs police watch commander, reported.

County hospital officials reported to Palm Springs police that Mrs. Johnson had given birth to a baby Wednesday, and had disappeared from the hospital. A note left for hospital aides instructed the hospital to give the child to anyone who wanted it.

No Choice Now For Spaniards

MADRID (UPI)—The government, apparently hoping to hamper the activities of Communists and other subversive agents, today decreed a two-year suspension of a Spaniard's right to choose his own place of residence.

Space Agency Seeking Ten More Astronauts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The national space agency is thumbing through more than 250 applications in a search for five or 10 more astronauts. Among the new crop may be the first American to fly to the moon.

The applications came in response to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's announcement April 18 listing basic qualifications. The application deadline was June 1, and NASA expects to make its selections next fall.

The armed services supplied 53 of the applications after preliminary screening of an even larger group of test pilots. More than 200 of the applications came from civilians.

The civilian group, which included many persons patently unqualified, will be screened down to 15 or 20, a NASA spokesman said.

He said the agency will "take a hard look" at about 70 applications, military and civilian, before paring the list down further.

The applicants left after the first screening will be interviewed and given written examinations on engineering and science next month.

After that, the ones still in the running will be given rigorous physical examinations. The selections of the astronauts who will join the original seven will be made, probably in September or October, by Robert R. Gilruth, head of the manned spacecraft center at Houston.

They will join the first seven in the post-Mercury Gemini and Apollo programs, after undergoing intensive training.

The Gemini program calls for astronauts to orbit the earth for up to a week in two-man spacecraft. Apollo is the project to land men on the moon before 1970.

'Lost' Man Was Not, Apologizes

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The man for whom rescue parties were combing the desert here yesterday walked into the sheriff's office here this morning and apologized.

He was not lost. He was "in Palm Springs and Indio yesterday with a friend." He promised that "such a thing will never happen again."

The revelation followed an eight-hour search for the man, or his body, in the Joshua Tree National Monument. Thirty-one men, six horses and a Marine helicopter combed a broad area of sand and rock for the missing man, whose automobile had been found beside the road in a remote area.

Besides the Twentynine Palms Search and Rescue Team's efforts to find the 32-year-old Eugene Rigby, who was reported alone on the desert, suffering from diabetes with only insulin and a gun with him, a similar team was on standby alert in Barstow.

After searching the three-to-four-square mile area where he was believed to be, the team cancelled its operations at 1:30 p.m. yesterday, when it was reported Rigby might not be in the area.

He was not. He proved it this morning with the apology.

Nuclear Test Protests to Continue

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA) announced today that demonstrations against U.S. nuclear testing would continue despite the arrest of 29 pickets.

The arrest of the pickets Friday capped a week-long protest sponsored by the committee and followed a U.S. District Court verdict against the three-man crew of the protest boat Everyman I. The three crewmen were sentenced to 30 days in jail for attempting to sail into the Pacific testing zone in defiance of a federal court order.

George Willoughby, a CNVA spokesman, said demonstrators would remain posted at the Federal Court Building until the crewmen are released from jail, "or until nuclear tests end."

SISTERS INVOLVED

Three Youths Held on 'Contributing' Charge

Three Palm Springs youths were apprehended in a local trailer park at dawn today on charges of contributing to the delinquency of 13 and 14-year-old sisters, Palm Springs police reported.

Taken into custody with the youths was the 14-year-old blond girl. Her 13-year-old sister had returned to her home and was released to the custody of her mother at approximately 3:30 a.m., Lt. Richard Harries reported.

Possible statutory rape charges against the youths, ranging from 18 to 19 years of age, may result from detailed investigation of the case, officers said.

Police began the search for the girls at 2:30 a.m., when their mother notified officers the children were missing from home.

A Palm Canyon Drive service station operator told police two young girls had been seen Friday evening in a car with three youths. The car was littered with beer cans. The mother told officers she saw the girls at 6 p.m. when she left for work in a local night spot. Both youngsters were missing when the mother returned home after 1 a.m.

Two unidentified girls may be responsible for estimated $150 damages to a vacant house at 3690 Avenida Fey Norte, Palm Springs police were told Friday.

Howard Craws, 3585 Calle Rojo, told police that rocks have been thrown through both sides of carport walls and two outside fixtures were taken from the house within the past 30 days. Suspects are two unknown female juveniles, police learned.

Canyon Club Apartments Get Okay

A conditional use permit for a 38-unit cooperative apartment project sought by Harold Simons for the Canyon Country Club has been approved by the Palm Springs Planning Commission.

The commission approval moved the reported $1 million project up for councilmanic consideration.

Planned for the east side of Camino Largo, south of Sierra Way, the cooperative units will total approximately 40,000 square feet on a 6.7 acre site, Simons told the planners. A total of 84 parking spaces are designed, giving an average of approximately 2.2 spaces per unit.

The planners asked a 50 foot setback from the portions of the unit facing residential areas, with standard setback abutting the golf course.

... it's always fun when Lucy's around! Our Honorary Mayor loves Lucy, his Dolores loves Lucy, Lucy loves Sloanes and "I LOVE LUCY." (she's co-starring with Bob in "Critic's Choice" at Warner Bros. where we were honored with a visit by Mayor Frank Bogert this week). We literally got lost in W & J SLOANES attractive Studio of Interior Design which popular Iris Adams so ably heads. Our beloved Lucy (whom Palm Springs hasn't seen enough of this year) was impressed with the vast selection W & J Sloane offer in custom furniture, decorative lamps, lavish floor coverings & draperies. Why don't you stop in . . . 460 South Palm Canyon Dr. today, if only to brouse ?????

... then there's the woman in Covina who rushed to the Blue Chip Redemption Store because she heard "Blue Chips" were on the downward trend!

Hizzoner — Palm Spring's (very own) "Honorary Mayor" Bob Hope made this comments on one of our sponsors: "The Scripto people like me because I'm good for business. After every show I get thousands of letters. The FBI says it's my problem. . . . 'Scripto's a great pencil. I kept score with it on the golf course & I liked it. It writes down whatever you tell it' . . . 'The man I was playing with like it, too. It had a good eraser'."

Island Offers Entertainment for All

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND — Just 20 miles off the California Coast, Catalina Island's principal city of Avalon stands picturesque on the island, waiting to welcome thousands of vacationers attracted here from the desert area, or anywhere in the world.

Catalina is undergoing a massive transition as news arrives telling of major changes already approved by P. K. Wrigley of the development of hundreds of additional acres of new homes.

The City of Avalon, which once ran the water and power plants of the island, is now turning over their operation to the Southern California Edison Company.

Beautiful, restful hotels on the island add to the enjoyment of visitors.

Hotels Are Attractive

One of the most modern of the hotels is Vince and June Scari's hotel, which is operated in conjunction with Scari's Restaurant.

For many years Scari operated only the restaurant, and only four years ago constructed Scari's Hotel. Now having some 30 modern units, the hotel faces Avalon Bay and is located downtown.

South of Avalon, a short distance from the beach, is the popular Las Casitas Garden Hotel, operated by Bill Behrschmidt. It is a resort within itself.

Behrschmidt, who has lived on the island for many years, is one of the most active in promotion of the resort.

Around Casino Point is one of Catalina's oldest and most beautiful hotel operations, the St. Catherine Hotel, operated by Joe and Rose Arno.

One of the largest hotels on the island, the St. Catherine has its own pier, beach and acres of grass and gardens.

The St. Catherine has undergone many improvements during the year, and stands out as one of the finest family accommodations on the island.

Casino Is Renown

Just one short block off Crescent Boulevard is the old, well-known Hermosa Hotel and Catalina Cottages, operated by Palm Springs Catalina residents Stan and Hermine Rosin. Stan's father, a pioneer of the island, bought the hotel many years ago. Today Rosin is planning a complete rebuilding of the hotel and cottage area.

One could not tell of the island and not include the Casino, possibly one of the most photographed buildings in the world. It was dedicated on May 29, 1929. As dusk descends on Avalon, the Casino shines out in a flood of light, dominating Casino Point and all of Avalon.

No trip to Santa Catalina would be complete unless the visitor took time out to ride horseback over the trails that traverse the island.

Finest Riding Horses

The Catalina Riding Stables are operated by Palm Springs French Small.

Frenchy has some of the finest riding horses in the West, and personally supervised the construction of the trails. He also has evening ride, hay rides, and a riding ring.

Another example of public entertainment provided by the island is Catalina Bird Park. The park, constructed by William Wrigley Jr., is a great tourist attraction where visitors find themselves spending many hours looking at the various species of birds collected from all over the world.

Another landmark of the island is the famed Catalina Chimes, installed by Wrigley and presented to the City of Avalon at a cost of $25,000. The Westminster Chimes are originally from the factory of Deagan and Co. of Chicago and are played by electric control from a console at the entrance to the waiting room at Crescent Avenue.

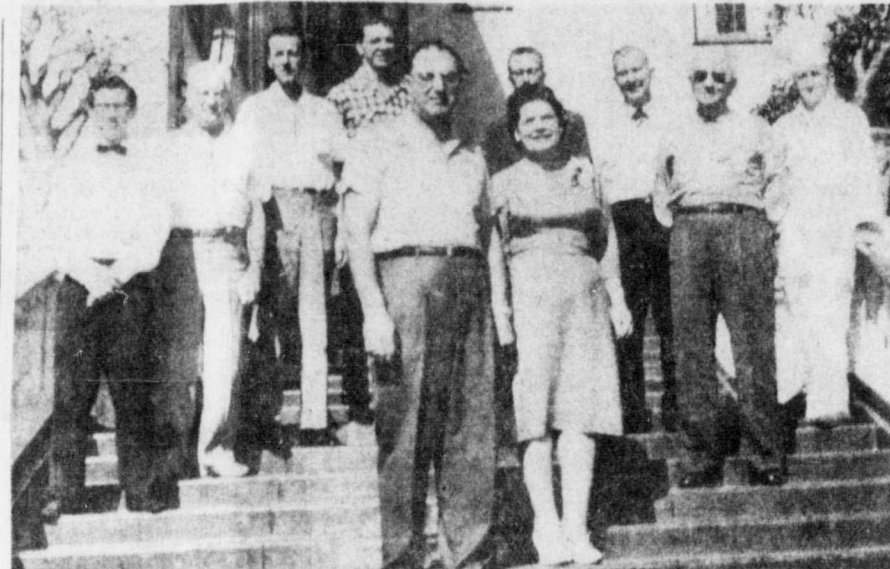

Fishing Is Varied

An attraction of Santa Catalina has always been fishing. Off the shores of Catalina, once ran whale, white otter, and black fish, but today the waters hold an abundance of marlin, albacore, bonito, white sea bass, and black sea bass.

Visitors can also board a glass bottom boat and travel around the island looking at sea life. At one point divers enter the water and hand feed the fish to attract them to the bottom of the boat.

During the evening, visitors are given an opportunity for another boat ride along the coast of the island and giant searchlights play upon the water to draw scores of flying fish from the sea.

A summer vacation wonderland, Santa Catalina has everything to offer the family on vacation.

Boat and Plane Carry Visitors To Catalina

Catalina, being an island, is accessible by only two means of transportation — boat or airplane.

Reservations on the big white steamship can be made by calling the terminal at San Pedro, or by asking the hotel at which you plan to stay to make reservations for you.

There are two airline services to Avalon, Channel Airlines, from Long Beach Municipal Airport and Avalon Air Transport from Long Beach Airport and Pierpont Landing.

Private yachts and charter boats also make the crossing.

SOMETHING NEW FOR 62 is the slogan which Al Thomas "Chappie" Chapman is using as he takes over the operation of the Catalina Island Golf Club. He is pictured with Bill Behrschmidt, operator of the Las Casitas Garden Hotel, who as co-chairman plan to revive the Bobby Jones Annual Invitational Golf Classic. Behrschmidt, a member of the National Seniors, reported that they would have competition broken down in age groups from 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, etc. Between the two men is the beautiful Bobby Jones perpetual trophy which was custom made by the late William Wrigley at a cost of $2,500. It is topped by a three foot swinging figure of Bobby Jones in silver and has on its base imported Italian marble. The trophy weighs more than 200 pounds and is estimated now to be worth $10,000. The Classic, for which a date has not yet been set, will be announced after the committee checks other tournaments so that their date will not be conflicting. "Chappie" Chapman was brought to Avalon to run the Golf Club this year after the City of Avalon took over its operation.

VACATION GUIDE TO

Mountain Area Pulls Visitors from Desert

IDYLLWILD — The small, rustic, mile-high community which summer and winter attracts vacationers from all over Southern California is becoming a Mecca for desert residents who will "get used to the mountains" when in May 1963 Palm Springs aerial Tramway will be completed.

The little village located 10 miles west of the terminus of the Tramway has experienced several transitory periods. Once a logging camp and cattle raising area, it evolved into a health resort and later on a tourist retreat for summer living. As a summer resort, it is now gravitating into a permanent community, with a present population of 2,200.

Once a year this little community has a Bear Festival, when the residents pay homage to the history of Idyllwild and to California. The idea of the Bear Festival was originated from the symbol of the brown bear on the California flag. It is an event which was honored in 1959 by the adoption of a resolution of the California legislature commending the community.

The progress of Idyllwild is measured in its civic leaders, who have done much to gain stature in their continuing program to make the mountain resort attractive to its tourists. Among these people are C. H. Bischof, owner of Forest Lumber Co. and president of Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce; Jerry Johnson of Johnson Realty, who handles property sales and rentals; Cloeva Rogers, owner of Cloeva's Fashion Shop; Burt Sarver, owner of the Idyllwild Garage; Martin Sousa owner of Singing Wood Lodge; Roberta Glass, owner of the Idyllwild Gift Shop; Rudy and Elsie Kloeble, owners of the Schwarzwaldhaus Restaurant, and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Fisher, whose new investment is building the New Sportland Park in the heart of Idyllwild.

Student Summer Camp

Participation in civic, social and service organizations absorbs the interest and time of the residents of the village. The Idyllwild Arts Foundation's summer program supplies an above average curriculum and training for summer students as well as plays and concerts which are presented for villagers and visitors.

Activities to suit the tastes and needs of everyone may be enjoyed all year. These include hiking, camping, fishing, hunting, horseback riding, snow sports (in season), swimming and bowling.

Square dances are held every Saturday night at the Town Hall. First run movies every night during the summer as well as campfire shows, outdoor breakfasts, rodeos, golfing and nature programs provided in a natural outdoor setting.

OPENING JUNE 15

New Sportland Park Ready Soon

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Fisher, three-year residents of Idyllwild and former residents of Lido Isle, have announced the completion of Sportland Park, a recreation and entertainment center in the heart of Idyllwild Village, one mile high in the mountains above Palm Springs.

The property, formerly known as the Idyll-Hof, has been extensively remodeled under the supervision of the Greer Construction Co. of San Diego and Idyllwild, general contractors on the quarter-million-dollar project.

The original sales transaction was negotiated by Jerry Johnson of the pioneer firm Idyllwild All Year Resort, who believes that the new Sportland Park will spark additional development of Idyllwild into one of the outstanding family - type year - a-round mountain resorts in the western part of the United States.

Work Completed

Work has been completed on the modernization of the bowling alley at the New Sportland Park, with the installation of Brunswick Corporation's "Gold Crown" equipment. Included are the latest automatic pin setters, scoring units and player and spectator seating, which will make the Idyllwild Lanes one of the most modern in all of Riverside County.

Installation of completely new and up-to-date stainless steel food service equipment culminates several months of research and investigation by Mr. and Mrs. Fisher into the food service problems of similar establishments in the Pacific Coast area.

The Colton office of the Eng-Skell Company, a leading California food service equipment company, did the engineering and designing of the equipment layout and handled the installation. The new dining facilities consist of a luxurious dining room, The Carriage Room, with excellent cuisine served in a charming Gay 90's atmosphere; a pool-side patio, the Dry Gulch Burger Bar; a spacious grill — The Sportsman's Grill, self-service Victorian style; the Ice Cream Emporium, featuring unusual experiences in ice cream such as "The Black Maria", "The Pink Garter" and "The Strawberry Blonde"; The Bowlers Nook, and even a Pony Express Coffee Bar.

New Roller Rink

Among other improvements and additions that have been made is the construction of an outdoor roller skating rink, a small animal farm, and a children's play area. Paddock Pools of Riverside, specialists in swimming pool construction in Southern California mountain resort areas, have completely rebuilt and modernized the existing swimming pool, including the installation of a new heating and filtering system, with new decking and a lounge area for adults, as well as a slide and play area for small children.

The existing miniature golf course has been greatly improved, and the Sportland Fun Arcade and Game Room have been redecorated and expanded.

Of particular interest to the many artists and art lovers of the Idyllwild and Southern California areas, will be the Little Gable Gallery, where the outstanding works of local as well as non-local artists from all of Southern California will be exhibited.

Attractive Gallery

Mrs. Jane Fisher, an acclaimed artist in her own right, is active in Southern California art circles. She has accumulated paintings and objects d'art for display in the Little Gable Gallery, which promises to be one of the most unusual treats at the New Sportland Park in Idyllwild.

The Little Gable Gallery will have monthly shows, and outstanding artists will be invited to exhibit and all shows will be selected by juries, Mrs. Fisher said.

The New Sportland Park building has been completely remodeled and modernized inside and out in the decor of the early Western and Victorian era, which was designed by Mrs. Fisher. The total cost of the remodeling, modernization, and improvements exceeded the anticipated $250,000.

"The Christian Answer to Atheistic Communism" will be the theme of a Sunday evening program, June 10, 7:30 p.m., at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1020 E. Ramon Rd., to which the public is invited.

The Rev. Paul C. Neipp of Ridgecrest, clergyman-editor-author, will deliver his "Impending Communist World Conquest" lecture. He will be accompanied by his son, Paul W. Neipp, third year college student, who will speak on "What Can Be Done for Victory over Communism."

The U.S. Information Agency film, "My Latvia," will be shown. Last Summer this Father - Son Team lectured in most of the important cities on the west coast and were enthusiastically received wherever they spoke.

Rev. Paul C. Nipp is pastor of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Ridgecrest. He was served parishes in Redondo Beach, El Centro and San Fernando, and in Havana, Cuba. His latest book, "Let's Take the Offensive", which appeared in Feb. of this year is now in its second printing, is the most complete and up-to-date work on what we can do to win the victory over atheistic communism.

"Every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God." Paul's declaration to the Hebrews (3:4) will be the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The spiritual source of intelligence and creativity will be stressed in the sermon, which includes this passage from Isaiah (45:5), "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me."

Mary Baker Eddy affirms in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

Beginning Sunday June 10, there will be only an 8 and 10 o'clock Mass in St. Louis Church, Glenview at B Street, in Cathedral City. Confessions will be heard from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Saturdays. Daily Mass will continue to be celebrated.

With the closing of schools and the arrival of hot weather, the number of persons in the area can be easily accommodated at the two Masses. Since the enlargement of the church there is ample seating for 215 persons.

Surf and Sand Draws Some Away from Cactus, Coyotes

For the summer months, many of the Villagers have turned in cactus and coyotes for the surf and sand of Hawaii.

From the Reef Hotel on the beach at Waikiki, Helen Lloyd of Rancho Mirage writes that she has worn out much shoe leather on shopping and sightseeing sprees.

"We're having a wonderful time," postcard the Daniel Nevins, who are vacationing in the Polynesian surrounding of Honolulu's Waikikian.

The Hollywood Roosevelt's Tom Hull and his beautiful wife Lynn Starr, who are hiding away in their Palm Springs home, visited Las Vegas recently. Rumor now has it that Hull, who originated the Las Vegas Strip, plans a new Nevada Hotel.

Speaking of the City of Lost Love, Ray Fine, president of Don the Beachcomber, has made arrangements with Milton Press to build another Don the Beachcomber.

ber in the new addition of the Hotel Sahara. The new spot will seat 300 lovers of Polynesian fare.

At the request of it's here-for-the-summer members, Ranch Club will keep its recreational facilities open through the warm months. Membership and facility information may be obtained by calling the club.

Many a lowlander has circled up highway 74 to visit Connie Yost of Palm Springs and Emma Schreiner of Los Angeles, who are summering at the Lilac Bush in Al Tahoe.

George and Mitzi Miller have put their Palm Springs home in moth balls, and sojourned to their beach home at Corona del Mar. Mitzi will celebrate her birthday tomorrow, with an Hawaiian Luau at the Newport Beach home of her daughter. Eight of the Miller's grandchildren will be in attendance.

Girls Gain, Lines Lose

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — The airlines industry bemoans the "cas-uality rate" of stewardesses to marriage.

But this "casualty rate" encourages numerous young women into seeking stewardess jobs. Actually, whom do the girls marry—crew personnel or passengers or men they've dated since their teen years?

"The boy back home," said the president of an organization of former stewardesses, the Kiwis, of American Airlines. But it turned out that Mrs. Earl Hogate of Oak Lawn, Ill., a Chicago suburb, is married to a pilot.

"Crew personnel," said Mrs. Glen Jorgensen of Garden City, N.Y., chairman of the Kiwis' current convention program. But Mrs. Jorgensen married a passenger "a roommate brought home one time."

The two women agreed that although many stewardesses do marry passengers—"a few strike it rich," said Mrs. Hogate—the great majority settles to wife-homemaker role with men not connected directly with air travel.

Grounded Birds
Both talked of the marriage rate as the Kiwis met in New York for their 10th birthday celebration, their fifth biennial convention. The more than 1,000 members of the organization, with 44 chapters in 25 states, named themselves for the New Zealand bird which cannot fly.

Some airlines today will permit a stewardess to continue on the job after marriage, but American still requires that she be single.

Mrs. Hogate, mother of four ranging in age from seven to 16, is a native of Charleston, W.Va., and met her husband when she was part of a crew on a DC3 flight from St. Louis to Chicago to Milwaukee and back to Chicago. He has been a pilot with American for nearly 18 years, she said.

"He was dead-headed," she recalled. This is a phrase applied to crew personnel not working but riding a flight to get to another assignment.

His original destination was Chicago but she laughed as she recalled that "he dead-headed right on to Milwaukee and back to Chicago with me."

"Working as a stewardess on a DC3 gave a girl a little more time," she recalled. "In today's jet age, well..."

Mrs. Jorgensen, who was a stewardess from 1937 through 1940, explained how she met her husband, a businessman. She was based in Fort Worth, Tex., at the time and one of her stewardess roommates was dating a man she had met on a flight.

Romance Blooms

"We used to double date occasionally," she said. But when her roommate was transferred to another route, acquaintance with her roommate's escort developed into romance.

The Kiwis organized themselves nationally for two reasons, said Mrs. Hogate, a pretty brunette with blue eyes. One reason was to give the stewardesses now grounded by marriage a chance to keep in touch with each other and continue their love affair with flying. The other, to participate as an organization in community projects.

Local chapters carry on a variety of programs, she said. They donate to schools for retarded children, purchase seeing eye dogs, finance hearing aids for children from poor families, put on birthday and Christmas parties for the aged, decorate children's wards in hospitals and shepherd groups of orphans on airport tours.

Table Settings In White House Bolsters Vermeil

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI)—The influence of Mrs. John F. Kennedy on today's table settings is reflected in the increasing popularity of vermeil.

Raymond J. Artabasy, vice president of a silver firm said that as a result of demand for vermeil 17 of his firm's patterns are being done in vermeil.

Vermeil was developed centuries ago as a substitute for solid gold. This came about principally in France where kings confiscated their subject's gold to replenish their exhausted treasuries.

The gold look became more and more desirable and vermeil—produced at a fraction of the cost without sacrificing the gold look—became increasingly in demand.

Artabasy said Mrs. Kennedy's use of vermeil for entertaining in the White House has created a new demand for the gilded services.

COCKTAILS

NEW OFFICERS of the Desert Bar Association were presented to members of the Desert Bar Association, during cocktails and dinner at Canyon Country Club. Standing with Judge Merrill Brown

Bierstube, Gay Party Idea

A new party idea now sweeping across the country may be your answer the next time you need a different entertainment theme.

Originated in commercial establishments, but now being extensively used for private parties, the old fashioned German Bierstube combines beer, good food and good music to result in an evening of good fun for your guests.

Bierstubes are easy to stage. Foods which make up the menu are historically those which are enhanced by light, bright beer and include sauerbraten, bratwurst, knockwurst, sauerkraut, potato salad, cole slaw, cheeses, breads, salt sticks, and apple strudel.

Music a Must

Music is an essential, and can be provided in a number of ways. A good piano player preferably one who can play "honky-tonk" and who has a good repertoire of old-time singing songs will get your guests singing early. An accordionist or even a record player with the right selection of tunes will fill the bill. And of course in any gathering of more than 10 there is always a would-be barbershop quartet that will sing such songs as "Sweet Sue," "That Old Gang of Mine," etc. at the drop of a hat.

Most important ingredient in a bierstube is the beer. It can be ordered in bottles, cans, or even kegs for draft service. Glass mugs, or graceful Pilsener glasses show off to best advantage and lend a touch to the overall effect of the setting. Plan on about three bottles or large steins for each person.

Decor for a bierstube is important, but easy and inexpensive.

Checked table cloths are a natural. Brightly colored paper or cloth hats for the guests will quickly put them in the mood. Wall decorations can be travel posters showing scenes suggestive of Germany, the Alps and rural European settings, and can be obtained from a local travel agency or airline office.

Be Nostalgic

Costuming is equally easy. Gaily printed dirndl - type skirts and white blouses, with a bright neck scarf or small floral wreath in the hair, serve perfectly for the ladies. Men can create a reasonable facsimile of the traditional "Lederhosen" by wearing colorful suspenders with Bermuda shorts. Shirts to go with the pants are simply white short-sleeved sports shirts, or a white dress shirt with sleeves rolled up will do as well. Knee-length white socks complete the costume. A nostalgic atmosphere can also be created by using sleeve garters and bow ties.

No matter how simple or elaborate you plan your bierstube, its very nature will create a aura of good fellowship, good fun and sociability.

Antidotes Are Usually Found In the Kitchen

"Your kitchen is a first aid station," says Mary Jane Forest, a home economist.

"Antidotes are given on the labels of products that contain poison, and they are the things that usually are found in your kitchen.

Vinegar, lemon juice, olive oil, butter, cooking oil, soap and water — these are some of the first aid remedies that are recommended on these labels as antidotes.

"If any poison is accidentally taken, the first thing, of course, is to call your doctor at once. Always remember that poisonous household products should be kept out of the reach of children, the same as medicines."

"Why not take a look as soon as possible at both labels and antidotes and see what you have immediately available? You'll feel safer for having done so," she said.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel & Co. says despite this week's wide fluctuations it seems the market is beginning to form a base from which a more normal pattern will evolve.

According to Jerome Peck Associates, Inc., the market is going through the early stages of what may prove to be a rather extensive period of consolidation. Within this framework, he says, prime nearer-term investor opportunities are believed to exist in "in-and-out trades."

Jet Age Cards

GLEN RIDGE, N.J. (UPI) — High school and junior high school are getting automated report cards.

Shearson, Hammill & Co. believes the tremendous reservoir of buying power which exists in the hands of institutions and individuals can be expected to assert itself vigorously as prices of individual issues reach bargain levels.

Goodbody & Co. says careful study of the market's action for some period ahead, particularly during its reactionary periods, will be needed before one can reach definite conclusions as to its general outlook.

'HALO' FITS WELL

New Angel Hurler Flips, 7 to 1 Win

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Don Lee appeared to be the answer today to the Los Angeles Angels' need for a starting pitcher after his auspicious debut Friday night against the Kansas City Athletics.

The son of former major league pitcher Thornton Lee hurled a two-hit, 7-1, complete game victory that brought a grin of approval from Manager Bill Rigney. Lee was obtained from Minnesota in a trade for relief pitcher Jim Donohue.

Rigney disclosed after the game that Angel pitching coach Marv Grissom had worked with Lee for nearly a week before his debut and discovered a defect in the righthander's delivery which they corrected.

"Lee was losing the catcher just as he threw the ball and as soon as he overcame that problem he began showing good stuff," Rigney added.

Chance Vs. Wyatt
The Angels play three more games with Kansas City. Today's afternoon clash will be followed by a doubleheader Sunday. The opposing pitchers today were Dean Chance (3-3) for the Angels and John Wyatt (4-3) for Kansas City.

Lee, a former University of Arizona player, was delighted with his first effort for the Angels. He said he tired a little in the seventh inning but then seemed to get his second wind.

"In the last three innings I used my fork ball instead of my curve and it seemed to work pretty well," the 28-year-old pitcher said. Lee's pitching victory was helped along by an 11-hit Angel attack featured by the work of Lee Thomas at the plate. Thomas, playing first base for the first time this season had three hits in four times at bat and in the seventh inning smashed a three-run homer into the right field stands. It was his seventh homer of the season and third against Kansas City.

Loves The A's
Thomas, both last year and this season, has been most effective at the plate against the Athletics. He currently is batting .303 against them with 17 runs batted in.

Leon Wagner drove in two runs with a double and sacrifice fly to raise his RBI total to 40, one behind league-leading Norm Siebern of the Athletics.

Felix Torres drove in a pair of runs in the fourth with a bases-loaded single.

Kansas City catcher Jose Azcue got the only extra base hit off

well," the 28-year-old pitcher said. Lee's pitching victory was helped along by an 11-hit Angel attack featured by the work of Lee Thomas at the plate. Thomas, playing first base for the first time this season had three hits in four times at bat and in the seventh inning smashed a three-run homer into the right field stands. It was his seventh homer of the season and third against Kansas City.

Ed Rakow took the loss for the Athletics as he left the game in the fifth inning after giving up eight hits and four runs.

The Los Angeles Angels farm system, which, like its parent, was non-existent some 18 months ago, is beginning to flourish with all four clubs showing promise.

Of the farm clubs, San Jose is blazing a hot trail in the California League. In first place from the outset, the Bees have maintained a five to six game lead for most of the season. Through the end of last week, outfielder Dick Simpson from Venice High, was hitting .355 and leading the loop in RBIs with 36. He had also hit 11 homers. Ernie Foli of Canoga Park, Jack Hiatt of San Fernando, Park, Jack Warner of El Monte, and Walter O'Neil were all batting well above .300.

Newman at 10-0
Bee righthander Fred Newman had extended his sensational pitching record to 10-0, best in the league. His strikeout total of 82 and 67 innings pitched were also tops. His ERA was 2.33. Righthander Pat Rogan of Lynwood, had a 4-2 record and 1.67 ERA.

In a ten-team league, the Quad Cities Angels of the Midwest League were in second place, five games off the pace. Righthander Paul Mosley of Saugus, won his first two games with the club and had a 2.12 ERA. First baseman Bob Johnson and outfielder Dennis Meyers are hitting consistently above .300. Meyers hails from West Covina. Third baseman Paul Schaaf of Compton was impressive with his fielding and .298 batting average. Righthander Jim McGlothlin of Reseda, was 2-0 through last week and struck out 14 men in his second game.

Islanders On Move
The Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League have begun to make their move and are now battling for a spot in the first division some nine games off the pace of Salt Lake City. After a short slump, third baseman Tom Satriano, formerly of USC, now has a .269 batting average with six homers and 26 RBIs.

Hawaii righthander Aubrey Gatewood pitched a tremendous game for his first win of the season recently against Tacoma going the distance in a 12-inning 3-2 victory.

Dallas-Ft. Worth of the American Association was but three games out of the first division in a six-team league. Mainstay of the pitching staff has been righthander Ed Thomas, a converted outfielder, with a 4-3 record and a fine 2.72 ERA. Righthander Jack Hannah of Fresno was pitching well also, with a 2-1 record. L.A. Angels Farm Clubs Look Sharp

San Jose Team
Leads Pack in California Loop

The Los Angeles Angels farm system, which, like its parent, was non-existent some 18 months ago, is beginning to flourish with all four clubs showing promise.

Of the farm clubs, San Jose is blazing a hot trail in the California League. In first place from the outset, the Bees have maintained a five to six game lead for most of the season. Through the end of last week, outfielder Dick Simpson from Venice High, was hitting .355 and leading the loop in RBIs with 36. He had also hit 11 homers. Ernie Foli of Canoga Park, Jack Hiatt of San Fernando, Park, Jack Warner of El Monte, and Walter O'Neil were all batting well above .300.

Newman at 10-0
Bee righthander Fred Newman had extended his sensational pitching record to 10-0, best in the league. His strikeout total of 82 and 67 innings pitched were also tops. His ERA was 2.33. Righthander Pat Rogan of Lynwood, had a 4-2 record and 1.67 ERA.

In a ten-team league, the Quad Cities Angels of the Midwest League were in second place, five games off the pace. Righthander Paul Mosley of Saugus, won his first two games with the club and had a 2.12 ERA. First baseman Bob Johnson and outfielder Dennis Meyers are hitting consistently above .300. Meyers hails from West Covina. Third baseman Paul Schaaf of Compton was impressive with his fielding and .298 batting average. Righthander Jim McGlothlin of Reseda, was 2-0 through last week and struck out 14 men in his second game.

Islanders On Move
The Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League have begun to make their move and are now battling for a spot in the first division some nine games off the pace of Salt Lake City. After a short slump, third baseman Tom Satriano, formerly of USC, now has a .269 batting average with six homers and 26 RBIs.

Hawaii righthander Aubrey Gatewood pitched a tremendous game for his first win of the season recently against Tacoma going the distance in a 12-inning 3-2 victory.

Dallas-Ft. Worth of the American Association was but three games out of the first division in a six-team league. Mainstay of the pitching staff has been righthander Ed Thomas, a converted outfielder, with a 4-3 record and a fine 2.72 ERA. Righthander Jack Hannah of Fresno was pitching well also, with a 2-1 record. Shortstop Jim Fregosi of Woodside has been bothered with various minor ailments since the season began, but was still hitting the .250 batting mark.

MODERN GOLF is heavily burdened with a multitude of promotions. Precious few of these offer the player any real help toward better club swinging and shot making. In the main they serve only to obscure the goal all golfers should strive for, namely, mastering the best possible approximation of the Correct Swing.

In the prevailing confusion players often attribute their failure to attain a goal to their supposed lack of ability to aim properly. The situation about the game as a whole has a parallel in shot making. When a player misses his target he generally blames his aiming. The remedy begins with selecting the right target. When this is done the player has little or no difficulty in aiming properly. Obviously, a perfect aim at the wrong target is absurd. Eliminate confusion by making sure that your main goal is a good approximation of the Correct Swing.

MIGHT STEAL PENNANT

Wills 'Stole' NL Lead In 4-3 Dodger Victory

HOUSTON (UPI) — When baseball personnel predict the Los Angeles Dodgers will make a real run for the National League pennant this year, they may be more serious than they think.

Racing around the bases with the daring of a veteran bank robber, the Dodgers are stretching pop flies into extra base hits and stealing bases so easily opposing pitchers have begun to get the jitters.

Friday night's series opening game here against the Houston Colts is a case in point.

Skitterish Maury Wills, who could with a little luck pilfer Ty Cobb's all-time base theft record of 96, walked to open the top of the 13th inning of a 3-3 tie. Whoosh, and he had stolen second. Relief pitcher Don McMahon, nervously twisting around to spot Wills dancing off second, threw again. Wills stole third.

So when Willie Davis whacked a sacrifice fly to center field, Wills flashed home with the run that gave the Dodgers a 4-3 victory and raised them into first place in the hectic National League race.

In the front of the league for the first time since last August — not including a tie last week with San Francisco — the Dodgers attempted to remain there today when they took on the Colts in the second game of the series.

Los Angeles' top percentage

After Los Angeles had blown a 2-0 lead and was behind 3-2 in the eighth, Frank Howard slammed a pinch hit home run to tie the game. This set things up for Wills' mad dashes.
